

Betrügerische Website – Warnung:

Eine Website gibt sich derzeit als deutsche Tochtergesellschaften der Group La Française aus und bietet illegal an, in Finanzprodukte zu investieren. Seien Sie wachsam.

June 2019:

La Française Group notes that a website currently impersonates at least one of the Group's German subsidiaries. The company that manages this site uses its membership of the Group to illegally offer to acquire various investment products. To do this, the interested subscriber is invited to provide a certain amount of sensitive personal information (identity card, Bank Identification Statement, and so on...) to make a first payment. We would like to point out that this website does not benefit from any agreement from La Française to use its name or one of its subsidiaries.

We would like to draw your attention to the danger of using websites that do not offer all the necessary guarantees in terms of financial investments and personal data protection.

We invite you to read the warnings issued by the Autorité des Marchés Financiers, which regularly publishes a list of websites and entities offering risky investments of this type in France without having the right to do so \(see veritas-investissement\).

To view La Française Group's proposals for financial investments in a secure and regulated environment, we invite you to consult the official Group's websites:

<http://www.la-francaise.com>